

OBITUARIES

MANDY GREEN

1966 - 2006

Mandy died on the 25 January 2006 following a short illness after collapsing whilst on holiday in Egypt with her husband, Derek. Although Mandy had lived on Lundy for less than two years, since Derek took up the position of General Manager, she had made many friends through her work in the shop and her involvement in Island life. The funeral service was held at Barnstaple Crematorium on the 2 February 2006 and her ashes were scattered from the Old Light following a memorial service on the Island conducted by the Revd Andrew Richardson on the 17 February 2006. The Society extends the greatest sympathy to Derek.

RUTH HARMAN JONES

1919 - 2006

The Society extends warmest sympathy to Peter Harman Jones, to Marion Evans, and to Diana Keast, on the sad death of Ruth Harman Jones in February 2006. Ruth suffered the debilitating effects of osteo-porosis, which had prevented her from coming to Lundy in recent years, but she will long be remembered for her great charm and her contributions to island life.

JOHN EVANS

1950 - 2006

It is sad indeed to record the death of another member of the Harman Jones family, John Evans, who died on 29 September 2006. He was a colourful and friendly man with many talents, who was never daunted by his ill-health. To his wife, Marion (née Harman Jones) and their daughter, Bronwen, we send deep sympathy in their loss.

A ceremony for the burial of the ashes for Ruth and John was held on the island on Monday, 20 November 2006. The party of mourners travelled to the island by helicopter, accompanied by the Revd Andrew Richardson, who officiated. For this occasion the weather was fine, and the sun shone on the two memorial stones of Lundy granite which mark the sites of the ashes in the ancient island burial ground.
